Course Description

Ancient World History will explore early civilizations including their geography, economy, religions, government and cultures. In addition, we will examine each civilization's contributions to modern society and how they affect the world we live in.

ASSESSMENTS

Students are assessed in several ways.

- Quizzes
- Tests
- Homework
- Classwork/Bell Ringers
- Projects
- Worksheets/Maps
- Being Prepared for Class
- Participation

GRADING

Grades are based on total points for each 9 weeks.

- A 89.5 - 100
- B 79.5 - 89
- C 69.5 - 79
- D 59.5 - 69
- F 59 and below

Cell Phones

Cell phone use is not permitted during class. They should be stored in the appropriate place out of view during class time.

NOTE: To receive full credit, assignments must be turned in on time. Points will be deducted for every day late. Students are responsible for all make-up work when absent or away on pre-approved trips. Most assignments are available on Google Classroom. Book chapters will also be available on Google Classroom.

Classroom Rules

1. Be on time. As you enter class, go to your seat and get ready. You need to be in your seat when the bell rings. If there is a Bell Ringer, you should be working immediately.
2. Be prepared for class: Each day bring your textbook, notebooks, pen or pencil, and homework, if due. Be sure your chromebook is charged.
3. Be Responsible. When you are absent, it is your responsibility to check with the teacher about missed work, turn in homework you have missed and ask someone in the room the notes/material you have missed.
4. Be appropriate. Any inappropriate behaviors as listed in the Student Handbook will not be tolerated. This also includes sleeping in class.
5. Be polite in class. When participating in class, please raise your hand. When others are participating, be courteous and listen.
6. Be Respectful in class. This would include respect for any person in class, teacher, substitute and other students.
