Description	Fitness is a semester elective PE course intended for those students who desire to maintain, improve or enhance their levels of physical fitness. Fitness can be taken both semesters and is designed for those students who are able to and/or desire to have a higher level of physical fitness added to their daily routine throughout the year. This class is for the type of student who enjoys exercising and moving at a higher rate of intensity in the various areas of physical fitness. All of the above activities will only be done if we are able to properly socially distance. If not, we will do things in class that can make it so the students can properly socially distance.
Texts Used	None
Homework Policy and Philosophy	No homework will be assigned in this class. All work is carried out during class time. Excessive absences will require make-up time or will result in being removed from the class.
