FALL SPORTS SPECTATOR INFORMATION UPDATE MERCER AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT ATHLETICS

The Mercer Area School District is updating its spectator guidance for home athletic events in accordance with the orders that were updated on Tuesday, October 6th, 2020.

Varsity Football: The following parameters will be put into place for the varsity football game v. Reynolds HS on Friday, October 9th:

- Two (2) spectator tickets will be distributed to each member of the varsity football team, varsity football cheerleading squad, and the marching band.
- Three (3) spectator tickets will be distributed to each SENIOR member of the varsity football team, varsity football cheerleading squad, and the marching band.
- Five (5) spectator tickets will be distributed to each member of the homecoming court.
- Additional individuals permitted in the stadium for the game will include players & coaches from both the Mercer varsity football team, Reynolds varsity football team, and all game & event staff (game officials, security, clock operator, announcer, athletic trainer, doctor, etc.)
- NO SPECTATORS FROM VISITING SCHOOLS WILL BE PERMITTED AT THIS TIME DUE TO THE GUIDELINES THAT ARE IN CURRENTLY IN PLACE. Those that are unable to attend the game will be able to watch a livestream of the contest using a weblink that is posted on the Mercer Area School District website.
- ALL SPECTATORS THAT ARE ABLE TO ATTEND VARSITY FOOTBALL GAMES MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES AND ADHERE TO SOCIAL DISTANCING GUIDELINES WHILE IN THE STADIUM.
- Additional guidance for future home varsity football games will provided on a week-to-week basis.

Middle School Football: Spectators from both the home and visiting teams will be permitted to attend up to the 25% capacity limitations. ALL SPECTATORS MUST WEAR A MASK AT ALL TIMES AND ADHERE TO SOCIAL DISTANCING GUIDELINES WHILE IN THE STADIUM.
